Confirmation students:

What part of the crucifixion story touches you the most?

*A huge “thank you” to the Adult Choir and Dawn Baas for leading worship this weekend.
“And special thanks to Fred Soheen, our awesome accompanist! And to his wife, Bev, for sharing him with us.”*

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.
We believe the Lord led you here.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery.
—Thank you

Here at Faith Community Lutheran... we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

The Second Weekend in Easter

April 11, 2010

Christ Moving in Our Lives

The second Sunday of Easter. Christ has died for our sins and salvation. He has risen. Hallelujah! The lessons today speak to me about Christ being in our lives for movement. He is in mine. I hear Him "calling in the night" – that's when I was given the thoughts for this devotion (specifically between 3 and 5 am).

The lessons paint a picture of overcoming our fears through the Holy Spirit. Acts, the Psalm, Revelation and John are all calls to action about movement through our fears to a life in Christ. We aren't to stew about our fears. We need to name them and seek guidance from the Holy Spirit (Ps 118:19, 21). Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see your situation in a way that will lead you to action. That action can be to talk to a trusted friend, family, Pastor, or Stephen Minister about your concern and what to do in your current life situation. Complain as you will (Ps 118:5), identify the concern under your complaint (Ps 118:19) and seek ways to address your concern – by a change in direction or perspective (seeing in a different way (Ps 118:27).

As we move through our lives, the Holy Spirit is available to help us (John 20:22). We can't see the Holy Spirit, but I know He is at work in my life. The Holy Spirit can be accessed through prayer, mediation, and quietly holding our concerns up to be examined by the Holy Spirit. Then miraculously the right path will come to us.

So on this day (Ps 118:24), the only day we have, let us pray for a vision towards action through the fears that keep us from a life rich in the grace, peace and blessings of Jesus Christ (John 20:31). -Ray Fossman
